

Write a Drama Script and Win $500

From 1st June to 31st August 2022 Repertory Theatre is running a Script Writing competition for people who are 18 years or under or still attending secondary school. Moore Law is generously sponsoring this competition with $500 for the winner.

The top three scripts, in the opinion of Repertory Theatre Committee, will be chosen for performance on a date to be confirmed during the term three school break – 1 October to 16 October 2022.

If the Script Writer wishes to audition the cast, and direct the play, members of Repertory will mentor them.

The play which captivates the audience's attention the best during performance, in the opinion of Repertory Theatre Committee, will win $500 for the Script Writer.

THE SCRIPT

The Script needs to be original and it should be suitable for live performance. It should have dramatic pace and tension and depict characters that are credible.
