

Spirit Level - General Character Descriptions

- Jack Cameron David Niven / George Clooney (Oceans series) type. Has been a very successful crime writer - before he died.
Playing age - late 40's onwards
- Susie Cameron ~~Didn't need to work because Jack was so successful, but probably ran the business behind it. Volunteered as an organiser for charities. Would also have been missed when she died.~~
- Mark Webster Real estate agent. A bit of a buffoon. Pretends a close relationship to the very successful Jack Cameron that didn't really exist.
Playing age - 50's onwards. Needs to be able to manage some physical comedy.
- Simon Willis Probably worked in a bank, or lower management of retail - something like that. Probably tried stand-up comedy at some stage. Investing in himself to take a break for a year to write a book (which ultimately is successful, but you don't know that till the end).
Playing age 20s/30s
- Flic Willis Has come from a background with some money but fell in love with Simon, whom her mother doesn't think is good enough for her. Has faith in his abilities. Perhaps was something like a lab technician or pharmacist or something like that. Playing age 20s/30s
- Marcia Bradshaw Flic's mother. Hasn't worked a day in her life - her husband supported her and she never questioned that. A bit lost now that he's dead. A snob, influenced by outward appearances. Nicknamed "The Beast of Basingstoke" by Simon. Playing age 50s onwards. Needs to be able to manage some physical comedy.
- Guardian Angel 1950's ex private school (girls) teacher. A bit of a snob. Would have been a "school widow" even if she hadn't blown herself up in a science class accident.
Note: this part as written is female....but doesn't have to be....
Playing age - Whomever wishes to have a go!
